

Scope

The International Journal of Asian Christianity (IJAC) is a peer-reviewed journal dedicated to the scholarly examination of Christianity in Asia and of Asian Christian diaspora in the West and elsewhere. While other major Asian religions such as Buddhism, Hinduism and Islam have received great deal of international scholarly attention, Christianity is relatively neglected as a subject of study. This journal is intended to rectify this neglect by providing a multidisciplinary forum for the examination of Asian Christianity from sociological, anthropological, comparative religion, religious studies, theological, historical and similar perspectives and link such studies to emerging trends in the social sciences such as migration studies, identities, minorities, secularization, fundamentalism, development, and the political roles of religion.

In the diverse and plural contexts of Asian societies and cultures, Christianity has embedded itself in complex ways giving rise to historically particular Christian communities with their own locally and regionally prolific variants of myth, tradition and culture as well as specific engagements with altering economic and political realities. This unique journal creates a space previously unavailable to examine these dense and sophisticated linkages of religion and culture both in their rich distinctiveness as well as in a cross-cultural and cross-disciplinary perspective allowing for broader generalizations and theorizations to emerge.

The journal is open to scholars of all religious persuasions or none undertaking serious work on the historical, anthropological, educational, theological, cultural social and political aspects of Asian Christianity and its role in shaping both the past and present Asian societies.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

Please note that submission of an article for publication in any of Brill's journals implies that you have read and agreed to Brill's Ethical and Legal Conditions. The Ethical and Legal Conditions can be found here: brill.com/downloads/conditions.pdf.

Online Submission

It is essential that submitted articles conform to the following guidelines; we may return your article for revision if it is not supplied in house style.

The International Journal of Asian Christianity uses online submission only. Authors should submit their manuscript online via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system at: editorialmanager.com/ijac.

First-time users of EM need to register first. Go to the website and click on the "Register Now" link in the login menu. Enter the information requested.

Instructions for Authors

When you register, select e-mail as your preferred method of contact. Upon successful registration, you will receive an e-mail message containing your Username and Password. If you should forget your Username and Password, click on the "Send Username/Password" link in the login section, and enter your first name, last name and email address exactly as you had entered it when you registered. Your access codes will then be e-mailed to you.

Prior to submission, authors are encouraged to read the 'Instructions for Authors' and the EM instructions available by following the above link and clicking on the 'help' icon in the top left hand menu on the page. When submitting via the website, you will be guided stepwise through the creation and uploading of the various files.

A revised document is uploaded the same way as the initial submission. The system automatically generates an electronic (PDF) proof, which is then used for reviewing purposes. All correspondence, including the editor's request for revision and final decision, is sent by e-mail.

File Format

Please upload source files (.doc, etc.) and not .pdf files.

For figures, please see below. Any figure files should be uploaded separately, and should have a high density of at least 300 dpi at a size suitable for printing.

Double-blind Peer Review

IJAC uses a double-blind peer review system, which means that manuscript author(s) do not know who the reviewers are, and that reviewers do not know the names of the author(s). When you submit your article via Editorial Manager, you will be asked to submit a separate title page which includes the full title of the manuscript, plus the names and complete contact details of all authors. This page will not be accessible to the referees. All other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The name of these files should also be anonymized.

Contact Address

For additional information or if you need help in uploading your manuscript please visit the author tutorial or online help links that are given at the right side of the log-in window. For remaining questions please contact the Editor, Dr. Felix Wilfred, at: christianityasia@gmail.com.

For eventual questions about Editorial Manager, authors can also contact the Brill EM Support Department at: em@brill.com.

Submission Requirements

Language

Manuscripts should be submitted in English. Spelling should follow British conventions, with –ize spellings (rather than –ise) and focused, focusing (rather than focussed, focussing). Points in abbreviations are used unless the last letter is still present (Prof., but Dr, St). Avoid using e.g., i.e. and etc. and unnecessary capitalization (western, north, century, biblical, scriptural; rather than Western etc).

Length

Submissions should be between 5000 and 8000 words in length (excluding footnotes).

Unicode and Non-Roman Fonts

Greek, Hebrew, Aramaic, Syriac, and Coptic words or texts should be given in their own scripts, not in transliteration, and kept to the minimum necessary. A translation should always be provided.

Texts in other non-Latin scripts should be given in transliteration unless the use of original scripts is absolutely necessary.

Fonts

All fonts used must be Unicode-friendly fonts. The Brill typeface (brill.com/brill-typeface) covers the Latin, Greek, and Cyrillic scripts. The font used for non-Latin scripts must also be Unicode (www.brill.com/resources/authors/publishing-books-brill/fonts-scripts-and-unicode).

Software

If you have Windows you should use MS Office Word 2010 (or newer), which handles non-Latin scripts well. Users of Mac OS X v.10.4.x may use MS Word 2004, 2008, 2011, or 365 if their text does not contain Hebrew, Aramaic, or Syriac.

Manuscript Structure

Submissions should include a title page containing the author's name, institutional affiliation and contact details (postal address, fax number, phone number and e-mail address). The manuscript and subsequent pages should not contain the author's details in order to facilitate the blind review process. Authors should take care to use inclusive language when referring to both sexes and to avoid colloquialisms.

Abstract and Keywords

Submissions must include an abstract of between 100 and 150 words. Submissions must also include a list of between 2 and 6 keywords.

Headings

You should ensure that you are consistent in the scheme of levels of headings. We normally have up to three levels of headings and we ask that authors should follow this, where possible. Headings are not numbered, flush left as follows.

The First Level Heading

The Second Level Heading

The first sentence in a paragraph following a heading is not indented.

Quotations

Quotations of less than 50 words should be enclosed in single quotation marks (normally before punctuation) and run-on in the text. Square brackets should be used to indicate words not present in the original, with ellipsis indicating that words have been omitted from the original. Quotations of more than 50 words should be indented from the left, with a blank line above and below the quotation (without quotation marks and double spaced). Quotations should be referenced using footnotes, with the footnote number in superscript after the punctuation.

Instructions for Authors

Footnotes and References in Footnotes

Footnotes should be used for references, with discursive footnotes kept to a minimum. The first reference must contain full publication details, with subsequent references giving the author, short title and relevant page number(s).

Instructions for Authors

Biblical References

Biblical references may be given in round brackets in the text, using Arabic numerals throughout, with a colon separating chapter and verse and a semi-colon separating books. Use the following abbreviations: Gen., Exod., Lev., Num., Deut., Josh., Judg., Ruth, Sam., Kgs, Chr., Ezra, Neh., Est., Job, Ps. (plural Pss.), Prov., Eccl., Song., Isa., Jer., Lam., Ezek, Dan., Hos., Joel, Amos, Obad., Jon., Mic., Nah., Hab., Zeph., Hag., Zech. Mal.

Mt., Mk, Lk., Jn, Acts, Rom., Cor., Gal., Eph., Phil., Col., Thess., Tim., Tit., Phlm., Heb., Jas., Pet., Jude, Rev.

For example: (1 Cor. 5:6-8; Rev. 7:1)

Internet References

Internet references should include (where available) the author, the title (place: publisher, date of print copy), the web host, the date, text divisions, the URL and the date accessed, as follows:

Esther McIntosh, 'The Concept of the Person and the Future of Virtue Theory: Macmurray and MacIntyre', Quodlibet, 3:4 (2001), para. 1-14 at para. 6, <<http://www.quodlibet.net/mcintosh-virtue.shtml>> [accessed 11 January 2007].

For items not covered here consult the Chicago Manual of Style (16th edn).

Punctuation

Apostrophes should not be used for plurals (1960s, MPs; not 1960's, MP's), unless the use is possessive, but do not use the possessive 's' when the word/name normally ends in an 's' (Jones', not Jones's).

Numbers

Numbers should be written as words (twentieth century, not 20th Century).

Dates should be written as 20 March 1956, 12-29 December 2001.

Figures and Tables

Illustrations, diagrams and tables including their legends and captions should be placed at the very end of your manuscript. However, please indicate in the running text where they should be placed. Figures should be submitted as separate source files in .eps, .tif, or .jpg format, in a size suitable for the typesetting area of the journal. The resolution of these files should be at least 300 dpi for half-tone figures, and 600 dpi for line drawings. Number the files, and indicate in the manuscript where they are to appear (Fig. 1 here).

The text in a figure must be legible, and should not be smaller than corps 7. The size of this lettering for any text in a figure should be the same for all figures in the manuscript.

Instructions for Authors

Bibliography

Each article needs to have its own bibliography at the end of the article. Because of automatic referencing this bibliography should strictly comply with the following rules:

General:

- Do not use dashes for repeated author names.
- Capitalization of titles in both headline-style or sentence-style is allowed. Please follow the same capitalization style as in the original title.
- Reverse italics in titles are permitted when applicable.
- The Reference List should be presented in roman script. Use a transcribed version of the reference where necessary. The original script can be included within square brackets.

Style:

Please use the following style conventions, which are based on The Chicago Manual of Style:

Book Review Submissions

It is essential that submitted reviews conform to the following guidelines; we may return your review for revision if it is not supplied in house style.

Submissions should also be submitted online, as noted above.

Reviews should begin with the details of the review copy set out as indicated here:

Brian Wicker and Hugh Beach, eds, Britain's Bomb: What Next? (London: SCM Press, 2006), pp. xii + 212, £12.99, ISBN 0-334-04096-5 (pbk).

The review should begin on a new line without a paragraph indent. The reviewer's name and affiliation/institution should appear at the end of the review, after a blank line space.

Length

Book reviews should be between 500 and 800 words in length (unless requested otherwise).

General

Reviews should be double-spaced throughout with pages numbered sequentially. Full stops, commas and semi-colons should be followed by one character space only. The first line of a paragraph should be indented from the left (using a tab, not spaces) without a blank line above. Avoid using e.g., i.e. and etc. and avoid unnecessary capitalization (western, north, century, biblical, scriptural; rather than Western etc).

Spelling

Spelling should follow British conventions, with –ize spellings (rather than –ise) and focused, focusing (rather than focussed, focussing). Points in abbreviations are used unless the last letter is still present (Prof., but Dr, St).

Quotations

Quotations of less than 50 words should be enclosed in single quotation marks (normally before punctuation) and run-on in the text. Square brackets should be used to indicate words not present in the original, with ellipsis indicating that words have been omitted from the original.

Quotations of more than 50 words should be indented from the left, with a blank line above and below the quotation (without quotation marks and double spaced).

Quotations should be referenced with the page number(s) in brackets after the quotation (normally before the full-stop):

As X states: 'A . . . ' (p. 93).

Page spans should contain the minimum number of digits, except for 'teens' and numbers ending in zero (53-6, 107-9, but 13-14, 300-303).

Bold

Avoid using bold type or italics (except for book and journal titles when italics should be used).

Apostrophes should not be used for plurals (1960s, MPs; not 1960's, MP's), unless the use is possessive, but do not use the possessive 's' when the word/name normally ends in an 's' (Jones', not Jones's). Numbers should be written as words (twentieth century, not 20th Century). Dates should be written as 20 March 1956, 12-29 December 2001.

Publication

Proofs

Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to the each author/ the designated author by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed.

Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author.

Authors will have 4 days to correct first proofs and to answer editorial questions.

E-Offprints

A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to each author. Brill is a RoMEO green publisher.

Authors are allowed to post their submitted (pre-peer-review) version of the article at any time. This is the author's own version that had not yet been peer-reviewed, or had any value added to it by Brill (such as formatting or copy editing). Authors may post the accepted (peer-reviewed) version of their article 24 months after publication. This is the version accepted for publication, which contains all revisions made after peer review and copy editing, but has not yet been typeset in the publisher's lay-out. The publisher's lay-out must not be used in any repository or on any website.

Consent to Publish

Transfer of Copyright

By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose the author needs to sign the Consent to Publish which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.

Open Access

Should the author wish to publish the article in Open Access he/she can choose the Brill Open option. This allows for non-exclusive Open Access publication under a Creative Commons license in exchange for an Article Publication Charge (APC), upon signing a special Brill Open Consent to Publish Form. More information on Brill Open, Brill's Open Access Model and the Brill Open Consent to Publish Form can be found on brill.com/brillopen.
